Judge H. served three years as Judge of the District, resigning for a preference for the practice, and being a lawyer he is capable of judging between Mr. Canfield and Mr. Barner, both candidates. He favors Mr. Cantield as being more experienced and possessing a clearer head.

Messrs. L. Carver & Co. bave Heally got their store at Hamilia & Woolley's old stand in operation. The room having been thoroughly refitted, they have a very handsome store, and all departments are arranged in perfect order. Their stock of dry goods, groceries, boots, shoes, &c., is very extensivee. We find them to be pleasant gentlemen, who will merit and secure the patronage of the people. Mr. Carver settled at Salina for the sole reason that he believed Salina possessed more opportunities for the dry goods trade than any other town in
